FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] PORT SHAFTER, July 25.—The past week has been well filled with affairs mostly informal in nature and largely confined to the younger element of the garrison. The exceptions were the dinners preceding the fortnightly hop that were given by Lieut. and Mrs. Laurence O. Mathews and Lieut. and Mrs. Cleveland C. Gee. The guests at the former were Cap-and Mrs. Clifford Jones of Kamehameha, Miss Lenihan and Lieut. Dana T. Greene, Lieut. and Mrs. Geo's dinner was a larger gathering and the guests included Miss Catherine Lenihan, Miss Malone, Miss Rosenbaum, and Lieuts. C. B. Lyman, Polhemus, A. K. Lyman and Campanole. At the conclusion both dinner parties were very much in evidence at the hop.

On Monday evening Captain and Mrs. Clyde B. Parker entertained with a unique party for the young people. Games with pretty prizes were the diversion of the evening. In these Miss Malone proved a prize winner and Lieutenant Lyman was also awarded the souvenir for men. At 11:30 the hostess served delicious refreshments and later informal dancing was in order until a late hour. Captain and Mrs. Parker's guests for this most delightful evening were General and Mrs. Edwards, Miss Potter, Miss Edwards, Captain and Mrs. Rosenbaum, Miss Lenihan, Miss Malone, Miss Catherine Lenihan, Lieuts. Halloran, C. B. Lyman, Polhemus, Silvester, Rose, Camp, Calder, Foster, Hardigg, Greene and Campanole and Dr. Dieber.

A progressive dinner was on the cards for last Wednesday evening and proved to be an immense success. Assembling at the quarters of Lieuts. Camp, Rose and Foster for the necessary preliminary appetizer course, the 20 girls and bachelors, under the chaperonage of Major and Mrs. Lenihan and Captain and Mrs. Malone, made a grand hilarious tour of the various bachelor quarters and the homes of the chaperones.

Lieuts. A. K. and C. B. Lyman provided the fruit cocktails for the party and it was but a step to the next course, the quarters of Lieuts. Greene and Hardigg, where the soup was discussed. Lieuts. Halloran and Polhemus and Dr. Dieber were the hosts for the entrée and then in turn followed the fish at Miss Rosenbaum's, the meat at Miss Malone's and the salad at Lieut. Campanole's, with dessert and coffee at Miss Lenihan's. Lieuts. Calder and Silvester were on the program for cigars for the gentlemen. The merry procession finally wound up at the hop room where other members of the garrison joined for an informal dance to the music of K company's orchestra aided by the Victrola. The bachelors proved themselves to be entirely at home as hosts for their respective courses. In the party in addition to those already named were Miss Alexander, Miss Richardson, Miss Edwards, Miss Porter, Miss Catherine Lenihan and Lieutenant Cook.

On Saturday evening last, following the movies, Lieut. C. B. Lyman filled his quarters with a crowd of his younger friends for a watermelon party of huge dimensions.

Captain and Mrs. James E. Bell of the 2d Infantry have chanced quarters during the past week from the set in the bachelor mess building to those formerly occupied by Lieutenant A. J. Booth. Their new home is now at number 28 in the cantonment.

Mrs. Walter H. Johnson was hostess on Wednesday, the 22d, for the Fort Shafter bridge club. The play was unusually spirited and proved Capt. C. S. Lincoln to be the winner for the evening with Mrs. Geo. S. Gibbs as second high score.

Lieutenant O. K. Sadler of Schofield Barracks was the guest of Lieut. C. P. Lyman, his West Point classmate, for over Saturday of last week.

Mrs. Michael J. Lenihan has sent out cards for Tuesday afternoon, July 28, for an afternoon bridge in honor of Mrs. Benjamin Walker Atkinson. Mrs. Lenihan will have ten tables in the play with additional guests to come in for tea at the conclusion of the cards.

Lieut. Carl Hardigg arranged a most successful riding party on last Sunday in which Mrs. Edwards, Captain and Mrs. Malone, the Misses Porter, Catherine Lenihan, Edwards, Malone and Lieuts. Silvester, Rose, Cook, Hardigg and Lyman participated. The party was absent throughout the entire day and had for its objective the top of Tantalus. Mrs. Edwards while a member of the party did not undertake the equestrian feature but drove up and joined the party at the summit.

The little son of Lieut. and Mrs. Vernon W. Boeller of the 2nd Infantry, is progressing favorably from the most severe operation recently performed at the department hospital and his parents entertain hopes of a speedy and complete recovery from his affliction.

Captain and Mrs. Joseph C. Kay, 2nd Infantry, now expect to leave Fort Shafter for the coast by the next transport and will be absent from the garrison for about two months, a leave of absence for that length of time having been granted Captain Kay in recent orders. They will be the guests of Mrs. Peter E. Marquart at the Presidio, San Francisco, during the greater part of the time while away on leave. Major Marquart who is now with his regiment, the 12th Infantry, at El Paso, has applied for a leave of absence and will come to the Presidio in order to be at home during the visit of Captain and Mrs. Kay.

Lieut. Franklin P. Jackson, 2nd Infantry, now stands number one on the list of 1st Lieutenants of infantry and is naturally expectant that his advancement to captain will shortly occur. Mrs. Jackson who has been absent on the coast for an extended length of time is still with her parents at Pacific Grove, but contemplates making a visit to her brother, Captain "Sandy" MacNab, who is an officer in the 14th Infantry with station at Fort Geo. Wright, Washington.

Mrs. Ernest V. Smith with her daughter has concluded her visit with her brother, Mr. Frank G. Blair, in Alabama, and has gone to Petoskey, Michigan, to be with a sister at that lake resort until the middle of August when she will return to California for a short while, coming to Fort Shafter in early September.

Lieut. and Mrs. Alfred J. Booth left the garrison on the 20th for their new home in the college grounds of Kamehameha School and are now comfortably and pleasantly settled. They miss the large circle of friends in this garrison but are rejoicing over the change for the better over the quarters provided by the government in the cantonment at Shafter. Mrs. Roe, Mrs. Booth's mother, accompanied the family and will continue to make her home with her daughter.

Mrs. Larry B. McAfee of the Lelehu garrison was the house guest of Mrs. George H. Jamerson during the continuance of the camp of the 2d Infantry at Red Hill where her husband, Captain McAfee, Medical Corps, was on duty as surgeon.

A change in the plans concerning the removal of Captain George S. Gibbs' company of the Signal Corps from Fort Shafter to Schofield Barracks having been announced whereby the company will remain at this post, the many friends of Captain and Mrs. Gibbs are rejoicing over the fact that those popular members of the line will still be members of this garrison. Their removal would have been regarded as a great loss to the social life of Fort Shafter. A similar sentiment prevails as regards Lieutenant and Mrs. Frederick F. Black who would also have been lost to this post had the original plans of the authorities concerning the signal company been followed out.

During the absence of the headquarters of the regiment at Red Hill for the coming week, Lieut. Col. B. V. Atkinson will be in command of the garrison. As but two battalions will
